

This organization has many Novice and Tech Plus members. Do they no longer meet the criteria for membership? It would seem they are requiring a higher class applicant. It is a shame when any type of public facility becomes too good for the common person.